

Teamwork
“Rules We Live By”

Develop your own—collaboratively.

We understand our purpose, have a vision, and will attempt to achieve it successfully.

We will attend to our important tasks and complete them to the best of our abilities.

We understand that each of us has individualized needs, concerns, experiences, and expectations, but all our actions will be based on what is best for all our children.

We will respect and trust one another encouraging and supporting the sharing of opinions and viewpoints.

We will use our best talents and skills. We each have roles and responsibilities. Equitable distribution of work.

We will use identified processes for making decisions, solving problems, and for resolving conflicts productively.

We will remain flexible in our thinking and creative in finding innovative solutions.

Building our capacity to function as a team--periodically review and assess.
